WE ARE RU SELLING!

RU Selling is a Rutgers e-commerce student run website organized to serve as a textbook alternative to a stringent textbook market. RU Selling seek to facilitate a safe online network where students can openly buy and sell textbooks to one another at designated on campus safe zones. RU Selling has a single flat service charge of 10% on each purchase made! Also, Rutgers Students will be actively supporting their local community from which 30% of each service fee charge is donated to Elijah’s Promise in New Brunswick, New Jersey.
(RU Selling offers fun and exciting INTERNSHIPS for all Rutgers Students!)

WHY RU SELLING?

Local book stores such as Barnes & Nobles and NJ Books dictate their textbooks prices and buy-back rates, wherein they can make up to 50% profit on individual textbooks! Other online websites such as Amazon charge services fees of 15% (and more!) while demanding consumers to pay shipping and handling! Lastly, ecommerce sites like Craigslist do not reinforce safety, often leaving the buyer and seller to hopefully meet in a safe area. To sum it all up, students face an expensive, dangerous and limited market.

MAKE THE CHANGE TO RU SELLING!

“RU Selling is for the students by the students!”

Rutgers students have organized as RU Selling to usher in a simple and easy online solution that will keep the flow of textbooks and money circulating within the Rutgers Student Community!
